

"The good-to-great leaders never wanted to become larger-than-life heroes. They never aspired to be put on a pedestal or become unreachable icons." – Jim Collins, author, Good to Great

David was more concerned about _____ than his own.

"David said to the Philistine: 'You come against me with a sword, spear, and javelin, but I come against you in the name of the LORD of Armies, the God of the ranks of Israel – you have defied him.'" 1 Samuel 17:45

"Whoever exalts himself will be humbled, and whoever humbles himself will be exalted." Matthew 23:12

David was more interested in _____ than his own.

"I will look favorably on this kind of person: one who is humble, submissive in spirit, and trembles at my word." Isaiah 66:2b

"I say to the boastful, 'Do not boast,' and to the wicked, 'Do not lift up your horn. Do not lift up your horn against heaven or speak arrogantly.' Exaltation does not come from the east, the west, or the desert, for God is the Judge: He brings down one and exalts another." Psalm 75:4-7

than a _____.

"Let us not become conceited, provoking one another, envying one another." Galatians 5:26

"David responded, 'Who am I, and what is my family or my father's clan in Israel that I should become the king's son-in-law?'" 1 Samuel 18:18

"Adopt the same attitude as that of Christ Jesus, who, existing in the form of God, did not consider equality with God as something to be exploited. Instead he emptied himself by assuming the form of a servant, taking on the likeness of humanity. And when he had come as a man, he humbled himself by becoming obedient to the point of death – even to death on a cross." Philippians 2:5-8
